Where to Stay:

- There are Airbnb and VRBO in the area, and a multitude of hotels 10 miles south at the Brunswick exit.

	Boat parking		Boat parking
◦ La Quinta	Good	◦ Sleep Inn	Decent
◦ Home2Suites	Decent	◦ Hilton Garden Inn	Decent
◦ Quality Inn	Decent	◦ Hampton Inn	Maybe
◦ Sure Stay	No	◦ Best Western	No
◦ There are a couple more I didn't put eyeballs on.

Dockage / Ramps:

- Slips are available at Two Way, cost – (they told me $10/night).
 - Boat lift for under 25' boats at Two Way. (shallow at low tide, the Champney Island Ramp is best bet)
 - Gas available at dock. Stay on the outer side of dock and use extended hoses, inside is shallow
 - Public free ramp is ~ ½ mi away at the Champney Island Ramp
 - - It's better to park closer to the far end of the lot and closer to the road. the parking lot can flood about ankle deep at higher tides.
 - Trailer parking available, but maybe not at Two Way
 - Call Chuck Alford for more info if you can't park your trailer at your rental, there is a place close by
- Two Way Fish Camp has bait, including live shrimp, and a good assortment of tackle and supplies.
 - Exit 49 to Darien (Hwy 251) - several fast food places, waffle house, and a couple of hotels there
 - Coastal Market Grocery store at the intersection of 251 and 17
 - Twice the ice is on 17 across from Coastal Market
 - Friendly Express Gas station at the Darien River Bridge is pretty easy to get in and out of with a trailer and to get gas while on the trailer
 - Food - Mudcat Charlies at 2 way; Skippers downtown (can access by boat, but limited docking), B&J's steak and seafood (a little south of Dollar General on the west side of the rd), Subway, and there was a new place on the river in the "complex" at the corner of 17 and Ft King George Dr

 Brand new Buc-ee's 2 miles away *****

Navigating the rivers. especially when headed toward the sound, stay in the channel marker and keep a good lookout for the next channel marker, they can be far apart and at intersecting creeks and rivers it's easy to get turned around and start following different channel markers.

Steve Smith, Doug Hutwagner, Ward Lang and Chuck Alford chartered two boats in February 24' and caught lots of Redfish and Trout, October should be even better, and the regs are significantly different in GA than FL.

Redfish: 14" – 23" slot, 5 bag limit

Trout: 14" min size, 15 Bag Limit
